

Title of Lesson: Puppet Power: Emotions in Motion: How Feelings Can Help Move a Story Along!

Artist Name: Sarah Stachura Regan

Art Form: Theatre

Academic Standard: 2nd Grade

Description: Complete this template for each lesson. These are only two sentences. It will be the introduction to each of your lessons.

Summary of the Lesson: This lesson will prepare students to explore the topic of emotions by completing an art lesson in storytelling. Students will learn how body language and emotions go together, as well as how body and voice inflection gives clues to a character's thoughts and feelings. Students will then get a chance to use the power of emotions by creating their own original ending to a crafted story.
